Modules

1) Write a program that explain the use of reload module?
2) Write a program which import modules from another programs which contain subtraction and multiplication operation in each file and call these function in the main module file?
3) Write a program that return absolute value of x, factorial of x, largest integer less than or equal to x, smallest integer greater than or equal to x by using math module?
4) Write a program to import a specific name from a module without importing the whole module?